Offertory - I am Blessed Lueck
Morgan Lueck, soloist

When fall comes quickly and spring comes slow,
And my sorrow then begins to overflow,
Won't you help my unbelief and cause me then to know...

When dawn comes early and rest comes late,
And the vultures and the thieves come out to play,
May your hope spring up within me well enough to say...

I am blessed, I am blessed.
Though my tears fall to the ground, I am blessed.

Throughout this long and ruthless day
Oh, your sun shines from above to light my way,
And your words, they guide my footsteps into another day.

So I am blessed, I am blessed.
Oh, sing my sorrowed soul to thee for I am blessed.

And tempest storms are sure to come,
But no fear of death be nigh as is with some,
For in the end my soul will rise up to the Lovely One.

So I am blessed, oh I am blessed.
In the end my soul will rise, so I am blessed.

So all ye saints and sinners bow,
For there is no time he's been so near as now,
For his Spirit dwells within us though we be vile and foul.

So I am blessed, oh I am blessed.
For Christ is with me to the end, so I am blessed.
Oh, though my tears fall to the ground, I am blessed.
Oh, sing my sorrowed soul to thee for I am blessed.
In the end my soul will rise, so I am blessed.
